University of Oregon Shared Governance

UO Board of Trustees
Independent governing board created by the Oregon Legislature in 2014

UO President & UO Statutory Faculty
Body of professors consisting of the University President, tenure-related officers of instruction, career non-tenure-track officers of instruction (including librarians), and OAs who are tenured in an academic department. The University President is also President of the Statutory Faculty.

UO Faculty Assembly
Meeting of the Statutory Faculty

UO Senate
Faculty, OAs, officers of research, classified staff, students. The UO Senate works on academic matters as commonly understood in higher education.

University Committees
Established by University Senate legislation. These groups have broad relevance to and impact upon the general university community.

Administrative Advisory Groups
These groups report to an administrator but partner with the UO Senate to define their charge and membership.
