

Merle Weiner, Law School

I am interested in serving on the Faculty Grievance Appeals Committee because I am deeply committed to a fair appeals process for aggrieved faculty. As a law professor, I am very familiar with appellate processes. I will do my best to give fair and full consideration to every appellant's case.