

Kris Seaman, Candidate Statement

I am an associate professor in the Department of the History of Art and Architecture and an affiliated faculty member in the Department of Classics. Since coming to the University of Oregon in 2015, I have served as a chair of departmental third-year review and promotion and tenure committees, a member of departmental undergraduate and graduate committees, a member of departmental search committees, a departmental Director of Undergraduate Studies, a member of my college's Equity and Inclusion Committee, and a member of the Oregon Humanities Center's Faculty Advisory Board. I would like to serve on the Faculty Personnel Committee because I am committed to shared governance and value the FPC's important work.
