

As the Director of Animal Welfare Services here at the University of Oregon, I have honed my skills in fostering compliance, promoting accountability, and advocating for the welfare of all beings. As a candidate, I bring to the table a deep commitment to both excellence and ethics. My journey in animal welfare has instilled in me a profound sense of responsibility toward not only our animal companions but also toward the broader community. I believe that serving on the Senate and elected provides a platform to amplify this ethos and affect positive change within our institution.

At the University of Oregon, we have a duty to uphold the highest standards of integrity, inclusivity, and academic rigor. As a member of the Senate, I will tirelessly champion these values, ensuring that our policies and practices reflect our commitment to excellence in all endeavors. Furthermore, I am deeply passionate about fostering a culture of collaboration and communication. I firmly believe that by working together, we can address challenges more effectively and seize opportunities for innovation and growth.

In summary, I am eager to bring my expertise, dedication, and collaborative spirit to the University Senate. Together, let us strive to uphold the values of our institution and ensure a brighter future for all member of the University of Oregon community.
