

Tenth-Year Review: Revised 11/12/2024 SCHOLASTIC REVIEW COMMITTEE [Tier 2]

1) Name of Committee Scholastic Review Committee

2) Brief Description:

Administration and interpretation of policy for undergraduate students whose academic work falls below UO scholarship requirements; rules on petitions for reinstatement or change of grade related to academic progress

3) Background:

4) Charge and Responsibilities:

The Scholastic Review Committee is responsible for administering, within the framework of faculty legislation, the undergraduate academic standards of the University as they pertain to the level of academic performance and progress toward a degree. The SRC reviews the records of undergraduate students doing unsatisfactory work, places such students on probation and sets individual goals for improvement, disqualifies students from attending the University for continued unsatisfactory scholarship, and reviews petitions for reinstatement. These responsibilities are carried out in two ways: (1) End of Term Review—in which the committee reviews the academic records of undergraduate students who have been disqualified based on academic performance, and (2) Petition Review—in which the committee acts upon petitions submitted by students for reinstatement, cancellation of academic probation or disqualification, retroactive withdrawal, retroactive change in grading option, or contested grade. Graduate students and law school students are excluded from committee review for academic warning, academic probation, and academic disqualification. The Scholastic Review Committee differs from the Academic Requirements Committee in that the SRC normally looks only at changes in the student record once the academic term in question is completed.

Our Charge and Responsibilities

I.

The Scholastic Review Committee (SRC) assists in the administration of academic standards at the University of Oregon. The SRC works alongside the University Registrar, Advising and other administrative partners to complete the following tasks:

- 1) Annually review advising guidelines, including which types of petitions qualify for administrative action such as auto-approve and auto-deny.
- 2) Review available data quarterly on petitions, acceptance and denial rates by type of petition.
- 3) Review and vote on all petitions that are denied in any administrative review process
- 4) Review and vote on all disqualification and reinstatement petitions.
- 5) Review all petitions related to eligibility for intercollegiate athletics or other University sponsored activities
- 6) Organize an annual orientation for new members

II.

Members are encouraged to use their judgment in recusing themselves in petitions which the petitioner is familiar to them or where the relationship may constitute a conflict of interest.

III.

The SRC does not review petitions from graduate and law students that are managed by the internal review processes of the Division of Graduate Studies and the School of Law. These petitions include but are not limited to academic warning, academic probation, academic disqualification and reinstatement.

IV

The SRC differs from the Academic Requirements Committee in that the SRC normally only looks at changes in the student record once the academic term in question is completed.

5) Membership Requirements:

~~Membership of the Scholastic Requirements Committee is not fixed except for the 4 student members. Membership traditionally includes 7-9 teaching faculty, 4 students, and the following ex-officio members: University Registrar (non-voting), Director of the Counseling Center or designee, Director of Student Financial Aid and Scholarships or designee, the Director of Services for Student Athletes or designee, the Director of the Teaching and Learning Center or designee, a representative from the Office of Multicultural Academic Excellence, a representative from the Office of International Affairs, and 2 representatives from the Office of Academic Advising.~~
