

Senate Budget Committee.

The Senate Budget Committee serves as an advisory committee to the University Senate with a primary purpose of informing the Senate and its constituents about the financial matters and fiscal health of the University of Oregon

The Senate Budget Committee reports to and acts at the direction of the Senate. It is charged with informing the Senate and advising the University President senior financial administrators and the Board of Trustees about university financial matters, including budgetary policies and decisions, and long-term financial strategies.

In fulfilling its charge, the Senate Budget Committee is tasked with reviewing budget reports submitted to the UO Board of Trustees and obtaining pertinent data from the university administration.

The committee will also regularly review reports impacting the University's budget by the Governor, the Oregon Legislature, the University of Oregon's Board of Trustees and the UO Foundation.

The Senate Budget Committee may initiate the study of financial issues and make recommendations to the Senate for Senate action.

The Senate Budget Committee may establish working subcommittees.

The SBC consists of nine members from the Senate constituencies (faculty, officers of administration, classified staff, research faculty and librarians, students), serving two-year terms.

Five members will be appointed by the Senate President in consultation with the Committee on Oversight and Shared Governance for a two-year term starting in Spring 2025.

Four members will be elected from various Senate constituencies as outlined below to serve two-year terms beginning in Fall 2026.

-1 member of the Statutory Faculty representing the College of Arts and Sciences

-1 member of the Statutory Faculty representing the Professional Schools and Colleges

-1 non-faculty staff member representing the officers of administration

-1 non-faculty staff member representing the classified staff

For appointed seats, the Senate President should consider skills and balanced representation from Senate constituencies when making these appointments. Membership should be appointed from a variety of schools and colleges, employee groups and student populations to ensure broad representation of viewpoints

The Senate President shall be an ex- officio voting member of the Senate Budget

Committee during their term of office.

The University President and Vice President for Finance and Administration or their designee serve as ex officio non-voting members of the committee.
