

Academic Modification Advisory Committee

Section 1: Purpose

- 1.1- The Academic Modification Advisory Committee (AMAC) is advisory to and convened by the Senate President after the President (UO President) has declared the need to initiate a significant academic change.

Section 2: Charge

- 2.1- The AMAC will provide meaningful advice and input to the President specifically related to significant academic changes.
- 2.2- The AMAC agrees to strict confidentiality as necessary to facilitate its role in providing meaningful advice to administrators. All conversations, documents shared and specific details discussed in a confidential setting shall remain confidential without unanimous agreement from the committee membership including ex-officio administrative members.
- 2.3- The AMAC shall provide a written report to the University Senate with their input before significant academic changes are executed. The report shall detail the process the Committee used to solicit information and provide feedback to appropriate administrators but will not include confidential information without unanimous agreement (see section 2.2). The AMAC report shall include details of the feedback received from various stakeholders and the University Community and the public.
- 2.4. The AMAC shall establish a plan for soliciting feedback from specific stakeholders, the University of Oregon Community, and the public as directed in section 4.4 of the Procedures for collaborative input for significant academic changes at the University of Oregon
- 2.5 The AMAC shall consider the following guidelines when giving their feedback to a potential significant academic change
 - A. academic quality of a program
 - B. significance of the program within the history of the University of Oregon and higher education in the United States
 - C. contribution of the program to the University's mission, curriculum, research and service
 - D. a program's present and projected student enrollment and societal need of the program
 - E. the program's contribution to other units and interdisciplinary faculty
 - F. the program's effect on diversity of the University, including historically underrepresented faculty, staff and students

G. The relative costs and resources of the program, considered in relation to the foregoing factors.

2.6- Each final AMAC report shall evaluate the administration's plan for a significant academic change to ensure that the plan:

- A. includes provisions for students to complete their degree within a reasonable teach-out period or receive equivalent alternatives
- B. is compliant with existing university policies and procedures and collective bargaining agreements that provide reassignment or other protections for affected faculty and staff.
- C. preserves the preservation of essential curricular functions and academic records
- D. mitigates harm to related programs and units.

Section 3: Membership of the Committee

3.1- The Senate President or their designee shall serve as the Chair of the AMAC and shall convene the committee.

3.2- The membership of this group shall consist of 9-14 elected, or in the case of students, appointed members of the University of Oregon Senate.

3.3- When the Senate President convenes the AMAC (See Procedures for Collaborative input section 3.1) they shall nominate a slate of seven members for appointment with the following criteria

3.3.1- ~~Six~~ Eleven statutory faculty members elected to the University of Oregon Senate, at least three of which must be from the College of Arts and Sciences, and ~~at least one~~ three statutory faculty members shall represent ~~each~~ professional schools and colleges, one member representing the Clark Honors Colleg, and one member representing the UO Libraries. ~~with no more than one member representing an individual professional school.~~

3.3.2- One member elected to the University of Oregon Senate representing Officers of Administration.

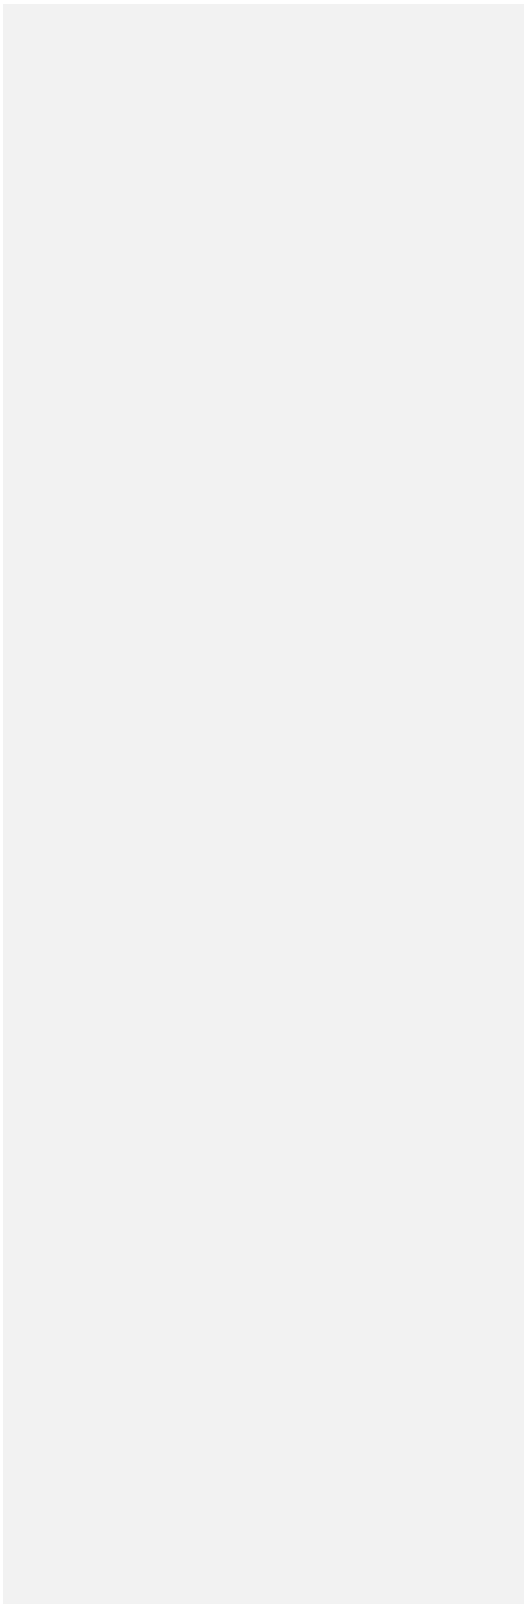

3.3.3- One member elected to the University of Oregon Senate representing Classified Staff.

3.3.4- One member appointed to the University of Oregon Senate representing students.

3.4 If the University of Oregon Senate approves a new school or college, that academic unit will be represented on AMAC by one statutory faculty member, and section 3.2 shall be automatically updated to add to the total number of members by one for each new academic unit.
