

Beth Harn, SPECS

Graduate Council seat

Having served on the graduate council for the last 3 years I feel I understand its role within the University and feel like I have advocated on important issues to improve the educational experience of our graduate students. Another term may provide continuity to ensure this progress continues.